Nick Macarchuk

Former head coach at Canisius College, Fordham University and Stony Brook University. New England Basketball Hall of Fame, 2004 Atlantic 10 - Coach of the Year 1999 USBWA District 1 - Coach of the Year 1991 NY State - Coach of the Year 1986 North Atlantic - Coach of the Year 1984 Fairfield University - Hall of Fame Canisius College - Hall of Fame Norwich Free Academy - Hall of Fame ECAC Lifetime Achievement Award 2013

John Reiser

For over twenty-seven years, Reiser has coached basketball at both the high school and college levels. A head coach at three Connecticut High Schools since 1988, he has led teams to numerous league titles, conference championships and state titles, including the 2005 "LL" State Championship. His 2005 team set a state record for victories in a season going 28-0. Coach Reiser was also selected as the 2005 Connecticut Coach of the Year. Reiser has the distinction of coaching both the boy's and girl's Connecticut Players of the Year. Reiser has coached Connecticut all-star teams and directed many camps and programs throughout the state. Coach Reiser was inducted into Manchester Sports Hall of Fame in 2012. He is currently boy's basketball coach at Manchester High School.

Johnny Kidd

A twenty-one year veteran of the college coaching ranks, Kidd starts his 18th year at Division 1 Sacred Heart University as the assistant and recruiting coordinator. Throughout his coaching career Kidd has always been heavily involved in the development of team defensive strategies and guard skills. Prior to Sacred Heart, he spent 4 years at small college powerhouse Western Connecticut where he helped them to two NCAA tournament bids. Before that he spent 2 years as an assistant at his alma mater Central Connecticut State. During his playing years at Central, Kidd was a 4 year starter and a two-time captain. Kidd finished his playing career as the school's all time leader in assists with 567.
